

AGAIN APPROVES
TARIFF MEASURE

House Adopts Conference Report by 254 to 103.

ALMOST STRICT PARTY VOTE

Smith-Lever Cotton Futures Tax Amendment Is Also Approved by Vote of 171 to 161, Party Lines Being Lost Sight of During the Balloting.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The Democratic tariff revision bill left the house on what the party leaders hoped would be its last journey to the senate. After many hours of debate the house adopted the main conference agreement on the bill, 254 to 103, almost a strict party vote, and by this action gave its endorsement to everything in the measure except the cotton futures tax.

At the end of a short but bitter fight for the adoption of the report Representative Underwood, the Democratic leader, succeeded in carrying through the Smith-Lever cotton futures tax amendment by a vote of 171 to 161.

Democrats and Republicans alike voted on this without regard to party and a large portion of the Democratic membership from Southern states joined in the vigorous demand that the whole subject be carried over to another session of congress. The cotton futures tax question now rests entirely with the senate. The house concurred in the Clarke amendment put into the tariff bill by the senate, but added the Smith-Lever Underwood plan as another amendment. Unless the senate will accept this change, which has the endorsement of the president, the whole cotton futures plan will again have to be considered in the joint conference committee and again reported to both houses of congress for action.

Fight on Cotton Futures Tax.

The cotton futures tax dominated the fight in the house, although but little time actually was given to its consideration. The history of the compromise amendment became a matter of record.

Representative Underwood said President Wilson had given it to him. Representative Lever added that the basis of the plan was a bill introduced repeatedly in the senate by Senator Ellison D. Smith of South Carolina; that he had asked the agricultural department to put the matter into shape for the tariff bill and that Postmaster General Burleson had perfected the amendment and given it to the president.

Three distinct elements developed among the Democrats in the cotton futures fight. One branch, led by Representative Hardwick of Georgia, demanded that the whole subject be taken out of the tariff and considered as a separate measure. Another section, led by Representative Wingo of Arkansas, insisted that the house should accept the language of the Clarke amendment in the senate. Representative Underwood headed the supporters of the compromise plan.

The tariff bill itself came in for warm praise from all Democrats. Representative Underwood declared that in its perfected form its averages were lower than either the house or senate originally had contemplated and he insisted that business conditions in the United States had so carefully prepared themselves for tariff revision that there would be little halt to business progress or prosperity.

PLAN TO PREVENT FLOODS

Board Urges Federal Control of All Navigable Rivers.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Immediate legislation to place under federal control the construction of all bridges and their approaches and to prevent encroachments on channels in tributaries of navigable rivers was recommended in a report submitted to Secretary Garrison by the board of army engineers appointed to investigate the floods which devastated the Ohio valley last spring.

Artificial contraction of river channels and their adjacent flood plains, which caused the disaster, the board declared, can be prevented only by systematic, comprehensive control by the central government, without interference from the state authorities.

"The board has been much impressed in its examination," said the report, "by the evils of divided control of the water courses."

HOPES TO HURRY
MONEY MEASURE

President Wilson Wants Date Set to End Hearings.

FINANCIAL EXPERT'S OPINION

Charles A. Conant of New York Appears Before Senate Committee and Endorses the General Purpose of the Bill to Secure an Elastic Currency and Centralize Country Reserves.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The senate banking and currency committee labored through another day of technical discussion of the administration currency bill, while the White House began to consider means of hastening the progress of the measure toward the statute books.

For seven hours the committee heard a discussion of the bill by Charles A. Conant, financial expert of New York.

Conferences at the White House and the Capitol among the administration forces took up the problem of hurrying consideration of the measure in the committee, where a majority of members appear to be willing to listen to all the testimony available in relation to the measure. Senators Owen and Shafroth, champions of the bill, talked with President Wilson and then conferred with the Democratic members of the committee who have shown aversion to certain provisions of the bill.

Later it became known that an attempt will be made by the administration Saturday to obtain an agreement in the committee to set a date for closing the hearings.

During the hearings Mr. Conant endorsed the general purposes of the bill "to secure an elastic currency and to centralize the country reserves."

OFFICERS DISCOVER BODIES

Two Men Killed by Gas Fumes in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Oct. 1.—The bodies of two men who had been killed by gas fumes in a room at 2012 Plymouth avenue. One was a young man, the other an octogenarian. It is believed they had been dead twelve days. Three policemen who discovered the bodies were partially overcome by the fumes still filling the room. They managed to crawl into the open air and in a few minutes were none the worse for their experience.

The dead: George Earnest, about thirty-eight years old, and John Ryberg, eighty-two years old.

FAMILY NEED NOT WORRY

This Is the Message Entombed Miner Sends Through Tube.

Centralia, Pa., Oct. 1.—The voice of Thomas Toshesky, who has been entombed in the Continental coal mine since last Friday morning, was heard through a tube fifty feet long which had been inserted in a hole bored through a wall of coal. He spoke quite distinctly, his first inquiry being about his family.

"Tell them not to worry too much," he said, "as I am in fairly good condition."

Rescuers told Toshesky to keep up his courage, as it probably will be twelve hours before he can be rescued.

DEFEAT COMMISSION PLAN

Minneapolis Voters Decisively Reject New Charter.

Minneapolis, Oct. 1.—Minneapolis, in a special election, rejected the proposed new charter embodying the commission plan of government. A big vote was registered against it. A total vote of 32,849 was cast. Of these the charter could muster but $850 to its support, 22,999 voters cast 6g ballots in opposition.

The vote was unexpectedly large, nearly normal figures of a regular election. Previously proposed charters usually have failed to attract to the polls more than half the voters.

A four-sevenths vote was needed to carry the charter.

Howard Elliott Sees Need of General Advance.

Boston, Oct. 1.—A short route to the restoration of public confidence in the railroads of the country would be furnished by a positive declaration by federal and state commissions that rates may be advanced, in the opinion of Howard Elliott, the new president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Mr. Elliott made this statement in an address before the Boston chamber of commerce, in which he discussed the future of the New Haven system.

The needs of railroads generally were dealt with at length.

ADMITS MURDERING
TWO LITTLE ONES

Minneapolis Woman May Have Slain Four Others.

Minneapolis, Oct. 1.—Following the arrest of Mrs. Ida Leckwold the police announced that she had confessed that she murdered two of her children within the last year. They are investigating the deaths of four other Leckwold children who have died within eight years.

The woman's husband, Ole Leckwold, was held for a time by the police, but denied any knowledge of the alleged crimes and was released. The accused woman is thirty-two years old.

The police intimate that their prisoner's confession implicates another man, whose name they refuse to divulge. They are searching the city for him.

The arrest of the woman was made by Policemen Brunskill and Hanson as the result of a conversation overheard in a street car several days ago by Brunskill, when some women were discussing the mysterious deaths of children at the Leckwold home.

According to the confession the woman is said to have made she killed her daughter Viola, nine years old, on Sept. 14, by administering liquid fly poison. Laurel, eleven months old, is said to have met the same fate six weeks before Viola's death. Willie, twelve years old, and Ethel, eleven years old, are the only surviving children.

WOODRUFF IS MUCH BETTER

Recovering From Sudden Attack of Serious Illness.

New York, Oct. 1.—Timothy L. Woodruff, formerly lieutenant governor of New York, who was stricken at a political meeting at Cooper union, had in part recovered from what was an apparent total collapse or stroke of paralysis.

"My father passed a very restful night," said John E. Woodruff, "and on the whole his condition is satisfactory."

Woodruff will take no further active part in the New York mayoralty campaign.

Signs Land Drawing Bill.

Washington, Oct. 1.—President Wilson signed the bill recently passed by congress which throws open to homestead drawing, beginning Oct. 17, 300,000 acres of grazing land in the Nebraska national forest.

SENATOR LODGE RECOVERING

Entirely Free From Fever and Condition Is Satisfactory.

Nahant, Mass., Oct. 1.—Encouraging reports came from the home of United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who is critically ill following an operation for the removal of a gastric ulcer.

"Senator Lodge is entirely free from fever. The attending physicians pronounced his condition satisfactory on their visit," said Mrs. Lodge.

It will be six weeks or possibly two months, however, before Senator Lodge will be able to resume activities.

CAPITAL FACES
WINTER'S WORK

Sad and Melancholy Days in Washington.

WILSON MAKING NO PLANS.

Secretary of State Greatly Annoyed by Constant Criticism of His Lectures. Printers Oppose Process of Washing Money, as It Deprives Many of Work. Who Owns Isle of Pines?

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 1.—[Special.]—Winter's work is upon Washington. For several weeks clerks have been working upon estimates, and bureau chiefs have been compiling annual reports. Estimates and reports belong to the winter or late fall. The period for making them has come before congress has had a recess, and before many people have been able to secure a vacation, those at least whose vacations depend upon the time when congress adjourns.

"The sad and melancholy days have come," one is reminded when Washington begins upon annual reports. Nearly everybody holding any kind of a responsible position makes such a report, culminating finally, as they grow larger and more important, into the president's message. And that is what makes that tired feeling steal over the capital about this time of year.

Making No Plans.

President Wilson is making no plans. Unlike his predecessors, who planned long trips all about the country and to Panama, the president has found that it is impossible to make plans with "congress on his hands," as Grover Cleveland once remarked. And congress will stay, or, rather, the president is determined that congress shall stay, until it does its work.

That Constant Hammering.

Secretary Bryan has begun to chafe somewhat under the constant hammering he has been subjected to for several months. He is used to newspaper criticism and even to misrepresentation, but it was political, and he took it as a matter of course. But now the newspaper attacks brought frequently to his attention have become annoying to him.

Why Washed Money?

The campaign against washed money continues by the plate printers, who are deprived of printing new money. It is claimed that it is almost impossible to tell the difference between washed money and counterfeit and that counterfeiting has been increasing since the washing process began. The washing system was installed because it cost 1 cent apiece to print bills. There is no difference whether it is a dollar bill or a thousand dollar bill. Naturally the dollar bills are most in use, and they are mostly the bills that go through the washing process. But the washing process is to be continued for a time.

Isle of Pines.

When the United States decreed that Cuba should be free it was natural to suppose that the Isle of Pines, always considered a part of Cuba, was included in that freedom, but as yet the Isle of Pines is without a definite government. Nothing has been determined as to whether it belongs to Cuba or the United States, except that the state department through a treaty has conceded Cuba's sovereignty, though the senate has never ratified that treaty.

"There are 3,000 people on the Isle of Pines," said a man who has visited the place, "but 90 per cent of the land is owned by American syndicates. The people are renters. This is a sure cause of trouble in the future, for the natives are getting poorer and becoming dissatisfied."

Too Much Fuss For Vic.

Victor Murdock, the Progressive leader, tells this about himself.

It was just after he had made his big fight against the railroads and caused action which lopped off about $5,000,000 of their railway mail pay, and he was soon to return home. He had made quite a name for himself, and the people of Wichita decided to give him a reception. After it was arranged they sought out one of the good speakers, a prominent lawyer, who they had gotten was a railroad attorney, and asked him to preside at the meeting.

"No, I don't think I will," he replied. "I think there is altogether too much fuss being made over Victor."

Doing Double Duty.

Senator Overman is doing double duty. He is chairman of the committee on rules, and owing to the continued absence of Senator Culberson he is the acting chairman of judiciary. But he does not object. In fact, I never heard of a senator objecting to double duty of that kind. On the other hand, I have known senators to work it so that they would be acting chairman of as many committees as possible. The North Carolina senator, however, has had the lobby investigation on his hands, which is something he did not bargain for.

Still a Farmer.

Making a reference to farmers while talking in the senate, Senator Nelson remarked: "I was nothing but a plain farmer myself then." He is still a farmer, but also a valuable member of the United States senate.

Friendship.

Friendship is the scarlet thread let down from the windows of heaven to bind human hearts together.

STORM FATAL TO
FOURTEEN PERSONS

Immense Damage to Property in French City.

Cerbere, France, Oct. 1.—A terrific thunder storm, which raged for twelve hours, has spread death and ruin throughout this city. Fourteen persons are known to have been killed and thirty injured and there are many missing.

A stream which passes through the city was soon over its banks and flooded the streets. In a hardware establishment where large quantities of gasoline, petroleum, alcohol and other inflammables and a cask of calcium carbide were stored, the water dissolved the chemical and enormous volumes of gas were formed. A terrific explosion occurred, which wrecked two buildings and enveloped two others in flames. Three persons who were passing at the time were killed. Five families were buried in the ruins.

Nearly every house in Cerbere is flooded and most of the provisions have been spoiled.

In answer to an urgent appeal from the mayor the prefect of Perpignan dispatched several tons of bread to meet the pressing needs.

The Floods also carried away the greater part of the Paulines dynamite factory and caused tremendous damage throughout the department.

ARREST CAMPAIGN MANAGER

Charged With Taking Money Given Him to Be Loaned.

Milwaukee, Oct. 1.—William C. Cowling, a well known Republican politician, former city attorney for Oshkosh and manager of the campaigns for the United States senate of Samuel A. Cook of Neenah, was arrested in District Attorney Yocum's office, charged with larceny as bailie.

For the last year Cowling has practiced law in Milwaukee and disbarment proceedings against him have been filed by both the Milwaukee County and State Bar associations.

In a warrant signed by Miss Bessie Mann, daughter of the proprietor of a lodging house, Cowling is charged with having appropriated $2,010 given him to be loaned to a third person. A similar charge, involving $250, is made by a member of a business firm.

SHOT IN FAMILY'S PRESENCE

Former Wife Fatally Wounds Los Angeles Agent.

Los Angeles, Oct. 1.—Rising from the breakfast table to answer the door bell Frank Ivy, a real estate dealer, was shot, probably fatally, by his first wife in the presence of his second wife and their two babies. Ivy fired a bullet at the woman, as she ran down the street, and she now is in jail with a bullet wound in her leg.

The shooting was the result of a quarrel over the divorced couple's daughter, who recently was taken from the mother and sent to Whittier reform school.

BANDITS REMAIN AT LARGE

Three Masked Robbers Secure $7,500 at Depot.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Oct. 1.—No trace has been found of the three masked robbers who held up Soo line station employees here, obtaining $7,500 from Western Express packages.

Two posers under the direction of the sheriff and the county attorney scoured the surrounding country, but failed to find any trail. The only thing left by the bandits was a bandanna handkerchief which had been used as a mask.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—With two of his friends standing guard at his home, William M. Lawson, Socialist mayor of Des Moines, Ill., who was threatened with mob violence, declared that he would face impeachment proceedings rather than retract his utterances regarding the United States army.

An article over the mayor's signature in the village paper, declaring that "no man can fall lower than a soldier," caused the outbreak. A crowd gathered outside the town hall and dared the mayor to come out.

He was fifty-five years old. The funeral will be held in Los Angeles.

ALMOST STRICT PARTY VOTE

Smith-Lever Cotton Futures Tax Amendment Is Also Approved by Vote of 171 to 161, Party Lines Being Lost Sight of During the Balloting.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The Democratic tariff revision bill left the house on what the party leaders hoped would be its last journey to the senate. After many hours of debate the house adopted the main conference agreement on the bill, 254 to 103, almost a strict party vote, and by this action gave its endorsement to everything in the measure except the cotton futures tax.

At the end of a short but bitter fight for the adoption of the report Representative Underwood, the Democratic leader, succeeded in carrying through the Smith-Lever cotton futures tax amendment by a vote of 171 to 161.

Democrats and Republicans alike
voted on this without regard to party

states joined in the vigorous demand

The cotton futures tax question now rests entirely with the senate. The ment put into the tariff bill by the senate, but added the Smith-Lever Underwood plan as another amendment. Unless the senate will accept this change, which has the endorse-ton futures plan will again have to be considered in the joint conference

houses of congress for action.

Fight on Cotton Futures Tax.

The cotton futures tax dominated the fight in the house, although but

Representative Underwood said

Representative Lever added that the Ellison D. Smith of South Carolina; that he had asked the agricultural department to put the matter into shape

for the tariff bill and that Postmaster General Burleson had perfected the amendment and given it to the president.

Three distinct elements developed futures fight. One branch, led by Representative Hardwick of Georgia, demanded that the whole subject be taken out of the tariff and considered

tion, led by Representative Wingo of Arkansas, insisted that the house should accept the language of the Clarke amendment in the senate.
Representative Underwood headed the supporters of the compromise plan.

The tariff bill itself came in for warm praise from all Democrats. Representative Underwood declared that in its perfected form its averages were originally had contemplated and he insisted that business conditions in the United States had so carefully prepared themselves for tariff revision that

CAPITAL FACES
WINTER'S WORKSad and Melancholy Days In Washington.

WILSON MAKING NO PLANS.

Secretary of State Greatly Annoyed by Constant Criticism of His Lectures.
Printers Oppose Process of Washington, as It Deprives Many of Work.
Who Owns Isle of Pines?

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 1.—[Special.]—Winter's work is upon Washington. For several weeks clerks have been working upon estimates, and bureau chiefs
have been compiling annual reports.
Estimates and reports belong to the winter or late fall. The period for making them has come before congress has had a recess, and before many people have been able to secure a vacation, those at least whose vacations depend upon the time when congress adjourns.

"The sad and melancholy days have come," one is reminded when Washington begins upon annual reports.
Nearly everybody holding any kind of a responsible position makes such a report, culminating finally, as they grow larger and more important, into the president's message. And that is what makes that tired feeling steal over the capital about this time of year.

Making No Plans.

President Wilson is making no plans.
Unlike his predecessors, who planned long trips all about the country and to Panama, the president has found that it is impossible to make plans with "congress on his hands," as Grover Cleveland once remarked. And congress will stay, or, rather, the president is determined that congress shall stay, until it does its work.

That Constant Hammering.

Secretary Bryan has begun to chafe
somewhat under the constant hammering he has been subjected to for several months. He is used to newspaper criticism and even to misrepresentation,
but it was political, and he took it as a matter of course. But now the newspaper attacks brought frequently to his attention have become annoying to him.

Why Washed Money?

The campaign against washed money continues by the plate printers, who are deprived of printing new money.
It is claimed that it is almost impossible to tell the difference between washed money and counterfeit and that counterfeiting has been increasing since the washing process began. The washing system was installed because it cost 1 cent apiece to print bills.
There is no difference whether it is a dollar bill or a thousand dollar bill.
Naturally the dollar bills are most in use, and they are mostly the bills that go through the washing process. But the washing process is to be continued
for a time.

Isle of Pines.

When the United States decreed that Cuba should be free it was natural to suppose that the Isle of Pines, always considered a part of Cuba, was included in that freedom, but as yet the Isle of Pines is without a definite government. Nothing has been determined as to whether it belongs to Cuba
or the United States, except that the state department through a treaty has conceded Cuba's sovereignty, though the senate has never ratified that treaty.

"There are 3,000 people on the Isle of Pines," said a man who has visited the place, "but 90 per cent of the land is owned by American syndicates. The people are renters. This is a sure cause of trouble in the future, for the natives are getting poorer and becoming dissatisfied."

Too Much Fuss For Vic.

Victor Murdock, the Progressive leader, tells this about himself. It was just after he had made his big fight against the railroads and caused action which lopped off about $5,000,000 of their railway mail pay, and he was soon to return home. He had made quite a name for himself, and the people of Wichita decided to give him a reception. After it was arranged they sought out one of the good speakers, a prominent lawyer, who they had forgotten was a railroad attorney, and asked him to preside at the meeting.

"No, I don't think I will," he replied.
"I think there is altogether too much fuss being made over Victor."

Doing Double Duty.
Senator Overman is doing double duty. He is chairman of the committee on rules, and owing to the continued absence of Senator Culberson he is the acting chairman of judiciary.

But he does not object. In fact, I never heard of a senator objecting to double duty of that kind. On the other hand, I have known senators to work
it so that they would be acting chairmen of as many committees as possible. The North Carolina senator, however, has had the lobby investigation on his hands, which is something he did not bargain for.

Still a Farmer.
Making a reference to farmers while talking in the senate, Senator Nelson remarked: "I was nothing but a plain farmer myself then." He is still a farmer, but also a valuable member of the United States senate.

Friendship.

Friendship is the scarlet thread let down from the windows of heaven to bind human hearts together.

the court of appeals, has been nominated

peachment case.

STORM FATAL TO
FOURTEEN PERSONSImmense Damage to Property
in French City.

Cerbere, France, Oct. 1.—A terrific thunder storm, which raged for twelve hours, has spread death and ruin throughout this city. Fourteen persons are known to have been killed and thirty injured and there are many missing.

A stream which passes through the city was soon over its banks and flooded the streets. In a hardware establishment where large quantities of gasoline, petroleum, alcohol and other inflammables and a cask of calcium carbide were stored, the water dissolved the chemical and enormous volumes of gas were formed. A terrific explosion occurred, which wrecked two buildings and enveloped two others in flames. Three persons who were passing at the time were killed. Five families were buried in the ruins.

Nearly every house in Cerbere is flooded and most of the provisions have been spoiled.

In answer to an urgent appeal from the mayor the prefect of Perpignan dispatched several tons of bread to meet the pressing needs.

The floods also carried away the greater part of the Paillies dynamite factory and caused tremendous damage throughout the department.

ARREST CAMPAIGN MANAGER

Charged With Taking Money Given Him to Be Loaned.

Milwaukee, Oct. 1.—William C.
Cowling, a well known Republican politician, former city attorney for Oshkosh and manager of the campaigns for the United States senate of Samuel A. Cook of Neenah, was arrested in District Attorney Yoekey's office, charged with larceny as bailie.

For the last year Cowling has practiced law in Milwaukee and disbarment proceedings against him have been filed by both the Milwaukee County and State Bar associations.

In a warrant signed by Miss Bessie Mann, daughter of the proprietor of a lodging house, Cowling is charged with having appropriated $2,010 given him to be loaned to a third person.
A similar charge, involving $250, is made by a member of a business firm.

SHOT IN FAMILY'S PRESENCE

Former Wife Fatally Wounds Los Angeles Agent.

Los Angeles, Oct. 1.—Rising from the breakfast table to answer the door bell Frank Ivy, a real estate dealer, was shot, probably fatally, by his first wife in the presence of his second wife and their two babies.
Ivy fired a bullet at the woman, as she ran down the street, and she now lies in jail with a bullet wound in her leg.

BANDITS REMAIN AT LARGE

Three Masked Robbers Secure $7,500
at Depot.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Oct. 1.—
No trace has been found of the three masked robbers who held up Soo line station employes here, obtaining $7,500 from Western Express packages.

Two posers under the direction of the sheriff and the county attorney scoured the surrounding country, but failed to find any trail. The only thing left by the bandits was a bandanna handkerchief which had been used as a mask.

SOCIALIST MAYOR FLAYS ARMY

Is Threatened With Mob Violence Following Attack.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—With two of his friends standing guard at his home,
William M. Lawson, Socialist mayor of Des Moines, Ill., who was threatened with mob violence, declared that he would face impeachment proceedings rather than retract his utterances regarding the United States army.

An article over the mayor's signature in the village paper, declaring that "no man can fall lower than a soldier," caused the outbreak. A crowd gathered outside the town hall
and dared the mayor to come out.

LAUNCH POWERFUL CRUISER

"Destroyer of Destroyers" Added to British Navy.

Devonport, Eng., Oct. 1.—The Aurora, a light cruiser of an entirely new type, was launched here and added to the British navy.

She is described by Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admirality, as a "destroyer of destroyers." The vessel displaces 3,500 tons and was designed for a speed of thirty knots. She is to use fuel oil for motive power.

Dies in Los Angeles.

St. Paul, Oct. 1.—John F. Kelly of St. Paul is dead in Los Angeles. He was a member of the wholesale grocery firm of Foley Bros. & Kelly. He removed to Los Angeles in September, 1912, hoping that the California climate would benefit his health, which had been failing since he suffered a stroke of paralysis two years ago. He was fifty-five years old. The funeral will be held in Los Angeles.

TEACHER FALLS DEAD.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Miss Mary Brown, for fifteen years a teacher in the public schools here, was stricken with apoplexy while teaching a class in the Gandy school and died as her pupils went to her assistance.

Harvard Professor Emeritus Dead.

Boston, Oct. 1.—Dr. Reginald Heber Fitz, emeritus professor of theory and practice of physics at Harvard medical school, died at his home here. Pro-

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Governor Sulzer declares he is being legally lynched by Murphy's forces and asserts he will expose certain senators as thieves, naval deserters and perjurers.
He will tell the story of Charles F. Murphy and Tammany Hall to the high court of impeachment, or to the people.
He knows, however, the court will find him guilty, he says.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Evidence that Governor Sulzer's stock transactions with the New York brokerage firm of Harris & Fuller were for the account of Mrs. Sulzer was disclosed at the trial of his impeachment. The articles of impeachment charge that the governor made use of some of his unreported campaign contributions in these transactions.

Melville B. Fuller, head of the firm, said the governor had told him that Mrs. Sulzer had a loan with the now defunct Carnegie Trust company of New York and that to take up the loan, for which he had given his note,
he had deposited securities belonging to Mrs. Sulzer with Harris & Fuller and borrowed money thereon to pay the note.

Fuller said the governor had told him this in the executive mansion in Albany July 30 last, when he had called there at Mr. Sulzer's request after receiving a subpoena to appear before the Frawley investigating committee.

"Mr. Fuller, you know that these securities were Mrs. Sulzer's, don't you?"
the governor asked him, according to the witness.

The broker said he replied in the negative.

"Well," said the governor, "these securities belonged to Mrs. Sulzer when I brought them to you," Fuller testified.

"She had a loan with the Carnegie Trust company. They required me to give a note every three months and it was very annoying, so I took the securities down to you and borrowed
the money from you."

Gives His Reply to Sulzer.
"I said to Governor Sulzer, 'That may be all true. There is no evidence of anything of that kind on my books and cannot be proven by me. If it's true you'll have no trouble in proving it as the books of the Carnegie Trust company must be a matter of record.'"

The governor's account with Harris, & Fuller which the impeachment managers charge is a marginal or speculative account, not a loan account, was opened in 1910, according to the books of the firm which Fuller presented. The Carnegie Trust company, it was recalled, was in financial difficulties that year and subsequently failed.

With Fuller on the stand counsel for the assembly managers also began to lay the foundation for proof of the charges in the eighth article of impeachment, that the governor used his official position to affect the current prices of securities listed on the New York stock exchange, "in which he was speculating."

The article charges that he first urged the passage of certain legislation and then withdrew or attempted to withdraw it.

"Did you appear before Governor Sulzer early in this year with reference to certain legislation which was pending affecting the New York stock exchange?" asked Attorney Kresel.

"I did."

"At that time Governor Sulzer's account was still in your office?"

"It was."

Fuller was not cross examined on this point.

Gilbert, oldest inmate of the Connecticut state prison, died there. He prisonment for the killing of Henry Cadwell, a United States Civil war

PURELY PERSONAL DIVISION

The Minneapolis Journal has the following lucid explanation in its editorial column as to what is really between the republican and progressive parties:

"Talk of fusion brings up the question, What is really between the Republican and Progressive parties? The difference does not get into the party platforms. They who voted the Progressive ticket were drawn or repelled by candidates or leaders. The division is still purely personal.

The Progressives are substantially in agreement with the Republican platform on national issues—protection and tariff reduction, currency and banking reform. The progressive platform on national issues divides from the Republican only in words. "Social justice" is a loud but vague phrase on which nobody disagrees.

The specific tags tied on to the Progressive platform are state issues. The recall of judges and judicial decisions, the initiative and referendum, are devices of state government. Nobody proposes to put them in the Federal Constitution. The Supreme Court has refused to pass on them in Oregon. They will be threshed out in the states.

Thus only persons divide the parties in nation or state. Taft and Roosevelt separated them last year. Only Roosevelt's personal ambition prevented Hadley from uniting them. The Progressive vote has disappeared on state tickets free from personal enmities. It can be brought in again only by antagonism to old leaders. In New York the split is on Barnes; in Pennsylvania it is on Penrose. Most of the discredited bosses are gone and the rest are going fast. The party organization through which they operated is sure to be reconstructed by a national convention.

If the voters who used to be Republicans can get together on candidates and leaders as they are already together on principles, they can make their numbers count again, either in opposition or government. That is the whole problem."

The ladies of the First Baptist church will give a veal pie supper at Walker hall on October 15. These suppers are always well attended as the buyer of a ticket receives a most generous meal and the "piece de resistance," as one would say, will on this occasion be a succulent veal pie, made as only the ladies of the First Baptist church can fashion it. You are advised to buy your ticket early and to be well up the stairs when the call for supper is sounded in Walker hall.

Miss Blanche Entriiken has returned from a month spent in Washington, D. C., and Chattanooga, Tenn. She went from here to Washington to be the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. B. Entriiken and with them went to the G. A. R. encampment at Chattanooga. She visited the scenes of some of the famous battles of the Civil War, being of interest to her, as her father took part in them. Miss Entriiken also visited relatives in Chicago and altogether had a most delightful trip.

Police of the city have been instructed in the traffic laws as the state laws apply to autos, motorcycles and vehicles of all kinds and the police are warning all those guilty of unintentional infractions of the law. Arrests will follow if those warned persist in breaking the laws. The most common offense is the sudden turning about in the middle of a street of an auto. Many drivers have done this in Brainerd until recently checked up. The proper place to turn around is at a street intersection. Turning corners sharp or at the wrong side is also being checked up as well as speedy driving.

The annual meeting of the First Congregational church will be held at the church at 8 o'clock tomorrow, Thursday, evening. One deacon, two trustees and other officers are to be elected, and the annual reports from the different organizations of the church will be presented. The meeting this year will be of special interest because during the year just past a new parsonage has been successfully completed and various other matters of special importance to the church have taken place. The business session will be followed by an informal social meeting at which the Ladies' Aid society will serve refreshments. A large attendance of church and congregation is expected.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" Best for Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels—Tastes Delicious

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

PURELY PERSONAL DIVISION
The Minneapolis Journal has the following lucid explanation in its editorial column as to what is really between the republican and progressive parties:
"Talk of fusion brings up the question, What is really between the Republican and Progressive parties?
The difference does not get into the party platforms. They who voted the Progressive ticket were drawn or repelled by candidates or leaders. The division is still purely personal.
The Progressives are substantially in agreement with the Republican platform on national issues—protection and tariff reduction, currency and banking reform. The progressive platform on national issues divides from the Republican only in words. "Social justice" is a loud but vague phrase on which nobody disagrees.
The specific tags tied on to the Progressive platform are state issues.
The recall of judges and judicial decisions, the initiative and referendum, are devices of state government. Nobody proposes to put them in the Federal Constitution. The Supreme Court has refused to pass on them in Oregon. They will be threshed out in the states.
Thus only persons divide the parties in nation or state. Taft and Roosevelt separated them last year.
Only Roosevelt's personal ambition
prevented Hadley from uniting them.
The Progressive vote has disappeared on state tickets free from personal enmities. It can be brought in again only by antagonism to old leaders.
In New York the split is on Barnes;
in Pennsylvania it is on Penrose.
Most of the discredited bosses are gone and the rest are going fast. The party organization through which they operated is sure to be reconstructed by a national convention.
If the voters who used to be Republicans can get together on candidates and leaders as they are already together on principles, they can make their numbers count again, either in opposition or government. That is the whole problem."

Many Brainerd, Barrows and Duluth People Will Witness First Shipment 8 A. M. Tomorrow

On or about eight o'clock tomorrow morning, October 2, the first shipment of iron ore from the South Cuyuna iron range will be made by the Virginia Ore Mining Co., a subsidiary of the M. A. Hanna Co., from their Barrows mine at Barrows.

Twelve to fourteen cars will be attached to the local way freight, No. 705. Conductor Ed. Hamblet will be in charge, with James Kelly engineer, Charles Barron fireman and Jerry A. Grace and Charles Remus brakemen.

A large crowd of Barrows, Brainerd and Duluth and Superior people will be present to witness the first shipment. The Brainerd Dispatch will have a staff photographer on hand and in addition other Brainerd camera artists will be on the spot to get a picture of the mine and the shipment.

The cars will be decorated with these signs: "First Ore From the South Cuyuna Range," "Virginia Ore Mining Co., Barrows, Minn.," and "First Ore From Barrows Mine."

Supt. Nichols and assistants of the mine, mining officials, fee-holders from Brainerd and other points, railway men, mining operators from many points will be present to witness the shipment. Many autos will make the trip from Brainerd. The roads are in the most shape imaginable and every citizen should take this opportunity to visit the enterprising mining town of Barrows and help by his presence to make the celebration a success.

This shipment means much to Barrows and Brainerd. It signals the entry of the South Range into the list of actual producers and gives it a standing in the eyes of people. With its gray banners the ore cars and the ore will receive attention all along the line of the Northern Pacific railway and especially at the docks in Superior.

HARVEST HOME PICNIC

Sunday School at Longville Celebrates Picnic on Sept. 27—Many Settlers Attend

Walter J. Smith, missionary of the American League School Union, returned today from Longville and other points north on his field.

On Saturday, Sept. 27, he attended a harvest home picnic at Longville under the auspices of the Longville Union Sunday Schools. The settlers gathered in for miles around and it proved to be the biggest day in the history of Longville.

In the morning a fine program of songs and recitations was rendered by the children. An address was delivered by ex-supt. of Cass county schools Mr. Hall, also an address by the Missionary. After these exercises a regular old-fashioned picnic dinner was enjoyed where every one ate all they were able and then some. Fried chicken, potato salads, baked beans, pumpkin pies, story cakes, and other good things too numerous to mention, provided by the ladies of the community.

After dinner a program of games and sports was carried out, nearly every one taking part. The first was a very interesting ball game between the married and single men. The whole thing was so thoroughly enjoyed that by the suggestion of the missionary it was unanimously voted to become an annual event, and officers and committees were elected for the coming year. To this feature is to be added a display of farm products.

"Tales of Honey and Tar" From West and East

Wm. Lee, Paskenta, Calif., says: "It gave universal satisfaction and I use only Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for my children." E. C. Rhodes, Middleton, Ga., writes: "I had a racking lagrippe cough and finally got relief taking Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." Use no other in your family and refuse substitutes. For sale by H. P. JOHN NAHLUM ON WORLD'S SERIES

Great Baseball Fan and Friend of Les Bush to Write up Games for the Dispatch

His Keen Analytical Style Well Known to the Fans of Brainerd and the Range

In these days of special writers in which everyone of note has been drafted to write his impressions on the world's series games between the Athletics and the Giants, everyone has been picked up except the Deutscher Kaiser, the King of Spain and the President of Mexico, it is a refreshing to read the announcement that the Brainerd Dispatch is able to make, that John Nahlum, life-long friend of Leslie Bush, will be at the games and record his impressions of the series.

John Nahlum has done valiant service in following the fortunes of Brainerd baseball and football teams and now that John will attend the Georgetown university at Washington, D. C., a stone's throw from New York and Philadelphia, he will attend each game of the series.

His writeup of Bush will be a humdinger. Nahlum and Bush have been pals for a long time and John sometimes caught back of the bat when Bush's throws were in a fair way of boring a hole through the chest protector. And just imagine the climax, if Bush is called to the mound in some crisis of the game and his friend John Nahlum, with pencil and pad, follows every move of the Giant enemy and faithfully records it.

Of all the wild-eyed fans rooting for Philadelphia we are willing to lay a mental bet that John Nahlum will let out the biggest whoop when Bush wins.

Think of the glory to Brainerd, the only city in the Northwest which has a representative on the Athletics team. Duluth and St. Paul and Minneapolis have to repeat the chorus of dope banded them from news agencies, but Brainerd will get its stuff hot as a smoking hamburger sandwich right off the fountain pen wielded by John Nahlum.

FOOTBALL SATURDAY

Little Falls Meets Brainerd on the Gridiron Saturday, October 4

The Little Falls high school and the Brainerd high school football teams will meet on the local gridiron next Saturday. The teams have met every year for ten years and Brainerd has defeated them seven of the ten times. Last year Brainerd won 18 to 6.

The Brainerd team has five of last year's players back this year and Little Falls has but three. The two teams taken all in all, are about evenly matched.

Brainerd is working hard every night under the direction of Coach Sherwood and will be in prime condition when the whistle blows Saturday. A hard game is looked for from start to finish.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock and a large attendance will do a whole lot toward helping Brainerd win, both in play and financially.

INDUCED TO BREAK CONTRACT

Aged Woman Says She Listened to Stories Told Her and Break Her Contract

A case in the federal court at Duluth concerning mineral lands and involving citizens of Brainerd and the Cuyuna range is on trial before Federal Judge Morris, of Duluth. The Duluth Herald makes the following statement of the suit:

"Declaring that misrepresentations had been made to her by Ransford R. Wise and his attorney, George H. Gardner, both of Brainerd, with regard to the characters of John Hill of Ironton and E. A. Lamb of Washburn, N. D., who had purchased her land in Crow Wing county, Mrs. Sarah M. Heberling-Benson, 75 years old, testified in a suit in equity before Federal Judge Morris this morning, and stated that she broke her contracts for that reason and sold her land to Mr. Wise, one of the defendants in the above suit.

The suit is brought by E. A. Lamb against Mrs. Heberling-Benson, R. R. Wise and Anna Wise, wife of the latter. Testimony was presented this morning by the plaintiff and the defendants, Mrs. Heberling-Benson and Mr. Wise. At noon the case was continued until 2 o'clock, when Mrs. Heberling-Benson was recalled to the stand.

Appearing for Mr. Lamb are Washburn, Bailey & Mitchell; for Mr. Wise, Crasswell, Crasswell & Blu, and for Mrs. Heberling-Benson, A. T. Larson.

Mrs. Heberling-Benson stated to the court that in October, 1908, Mr. Hill came to her and offered to pay $1800 for the homestead left her by her husband, who had died several months previous. The aged widow agreed to the deal and signed a receipt for $25 earnest money, which she said Mr. Hill paid her.

It was decided at the time, she stated, that she was to send the deeds on the two parcels of land to Mr. Hill as soon as they were sent to her by the probate court, the ownership of the land having been up to the court, as her husband had left no will.

Shortly after this agreement was made, Mrs. Heberling-Benson left for Brainerd to make her home. After arriving there, she says, Mr. Wise and his attorney, Mr. Gardner, came to her and made misrepresentations about the agreement and that Mr. Hill was a person of "low character" and that he would never stick to his original agreement. Believing these men, she said, she signed a deed over to Mr. Wise, selling her property for the latter's offer of $1,500.

At the time of the sale Mrs. Heberling was a widow, but she has since married a settler near Brainerd by the name of Benson.

In the complaint against the defendants Mr. Lamb declares that he is entitled to ownership of the land described as the southeast quarter of section 1 in township 45, north of range 29, and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 2 in the same township. He asks the court to adjudge him the owner and to declare the deed now in the possession of Mr. Wise null and void.

This is the story of the testimony of the complaint's side, said George H. Gardner, in a telephone message to the Dispatch this morning, who claims that when the defense introduced its testimony that Mr. Wise's statements cleared up many disputed points. He asked that readers withhold their judgment until the entire case was heard and the jury rendered its verdict.

The daughter of A. Mitchell, Bagdad, Ky., had a bad case of kidney trouble and they feared her health was permanently impaired. Upbringing.

HARVEST HOME PICNIC

Sunday School at Longville Celebrates Picnic on Sept. 27—Many Settlers Attend

Walter J. Smith, missionary of the American League School Union, returned today from Longville and other points north on his field.

On Saturday, Sept. 27, he attended a harvest home picnic at Longville under the auspices of the Longville Union Sunday Schools. The settlers gathered in for miles around and it proved to be the biggest day in the history of Longville.

In the morning a fine program of songs and recitations was rendered by the children. An address was delivered by ex-supt. of Cass county schools Mr. Hall, also an address by the Missionary. After these exercises a regular old-fashioned picnic dinner was enjoyed where every one ate all they were able and then some. Fried chicken, potato salads, baked beans, pumpkin pies, story cakes, and other good things too numerous to mention, provided by the ladies of the community.

After dinner a program of games and sports was carried out, nearly every one taking part. The first was a very interesting ball game between the married and single men. The whole thing was so thoroughly enjoyed that by the suggestion of the missionary it was unanimously voted to become an annual event, and officers and committees were elected for the coming year. To this feature is to be added a display of farm products.

"Tales of Honey and Tar" From West and East

Wm. Lee, Paskenta, Calif., says: "It gives universal satisfaction and I use only Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for my children." E. C. SLATED FOR POSTMASTER

Marc Atkinson, Editor of Crosby Crucible, is Said to Have Been Decided on for Position

The Virginia Virginian says: Marc Atkinson, editor of the Crosby Crucible, formerly associate editor of the Hibbing Mesaba Ore, is slated to become the next postmaster at Crosby. The younger Atkinson, best known as the "young man hereof," is very popular at the Cuyuna range metropolis, and in addition to being a hustler used much of his ability in working for Woodrow Wilson's election.

Like his father, Claude Atkinson, the "old man hereof," the Crosby editor is a democrat with liberal leanings. While at Hibbing he was secretary of the Commercial club and was always active in social and business affairs.

Fred B. Lynch, the St. Paul democratic chieftain who dispenses Woodrow Wilson patronage in Minnesota, has endorsed young Atkinson's candidacy for the office, and according to those on the "inside," the young editor will soon be doing the stamp-pounding at Crosby.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it incurable, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Catarrh Cure for constipation.

"Here, my boy," said his new employer, "take this quarter and go out and get three ham sandwiches." The boy vanished and did not return for half an hour.

"See here. Where have you been loitering," demanded the boss, "and where are my sandwiches?"

"Scissors!" gasped the boy. "I thought they were for me!" — New York World.

Fairly Warned.

"It is mighty dangerous to call one card of any other suit if you sit in a game around here," warned the native. — Buffalo Express.

NO TELEPHONE

FRANCHISE GIVEN

From The Bee, Sacramento, Calif.

The Trustees last evening voted to refuse a franchise to the Tehama Telephone company for the construction of a line and branch system in Corning. The vote stood three to two.

The reason given for the opposition to granting the franchise was that Corning now has one telephone system and that the establishment of another one would force the citizens to put in two telephones or else be subject to inconvenience in not being able to reach all of the people.

It is reported that Attorney Andrews of Red Bluff, who represents Tehama County Telephone company, will take legal steps against the Trustees in an effort to compel them to grant a franchise.

A MORNING'S CATCH, SOUTH LONG LAKE

Bass fishing is one of the finest sports in the category of a fisherman and the sportsmen in the picture were satisfied with the results of their catch at South Long lake near the home of J. D. Armstrong.

The quartet in the spotlight are H. H. Zeigler and F. J. Boon of Junction City, Kansas; E. T. Polan of Fairbury, Nebraska and D. J. Hauge of Springfield, Mo. In the rear, revealing a broad expanse of white shirt and a satisfied smile, is the host of the party, J. D. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong has taken quite an interest in South Long lake. He stocked it this summer with pike, crappies and black bass.

"COINING MONEY"

is so different, yet a phrase aptly applied when money is made rapidly by investment. ABSOLUTE SAFETY is the first consideration, and Real Estate offers that safety; certainly an immediate increase is next. Any city now building on substantial industrial development insures rapidly increasing value.

GARY, the new Steel Plant City, offers a full measure of these requirements. Gary, 1st Div. adjoins the U. S. Steel Corporation's new 25 million Dollar Steel Plant, where both city and plant are now building. The mills are expected to operate by spring. Other gigantic subsidiary plants are also locating, one of which is the big Cement Plant, costing nearly Two Million Dollars, giving assurance of a 200 MILLION DOLLAR INDUSTRIAL GROWTH with 12,000 workmen receiving a FULL MILLION IN PAYROLLS EACH MONTH. FACTS show the inevitable result—an ENORMOUS CITY with its high priced realty within 6 years.

No investment at Gary, Ind., during 1906-7-8 were without immense profits. Gary, 1st Div., now stands where Gary, Ind., stood in 1906-7. You can now own a business lot in Gary at a reasonable price and on easy terms, where the Steel Co. has already invested more money than is within your realization of its magnitude. CERTAIN IMMUTABLE LAWS operating through great industrial development, areas certain as the law of gravitation, guaranteeing the investor an increased population, producing high valued realty in quick time, thereby "coining you money" from the purchase NOW of a Gary lot. THIS is sound business judgment. THIS IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY. Investigate it, whether your funds are great or small, and you will realize accordingly. Follow U. S. Steel Development and make money instead of mistakes. Ask for a photo of the new Gary.

SLATED FOR POSTMASTER

Marc Atkinson, Editor of Crosby Crucible, is Said to Have Been Decided on for Position

The Virginia Virginian says: Marc Atkinson, editor of the Crosby Crucible, formerly associate editor of the Hibbing Mesaba Ore, is slated to become the next postmaster at Crosby. The younger Atkinson, best known as the "young man hereof," is very popular at the Cuyuna range metropolis, and in addition to being a hustler used much of his ability in working for Woodrow Wilson's election.

Like his father, Claude Atkinson, the "old man hereof," the Crosby editor is a democrat with liberal leanings. While at Hibbing he was secretary of the Commercial club and was always active in social and business affairs.

Fred B. Lynch, the St. Paul democratic chieftain who dispenses Woodrow Wilson patronage in Minnesota, has endorsed young Atkinson's candidacy for the office, and according to those on the "inside," the young editor will soon be doing the stamp-pounding at Crosby.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it incurable, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. The "cure" is all in the pills for constipation.

Wrong Hunch, No Lunch.

"Here, my boy," said his new employer, "take this quarter and go out and get three ham sandwiches."

The boy vanished and did not return for half an hour.

"See here. Where have you been loitering," demanded the boss, "and where are my sandwiches?"

"Scissors!" gasped the boy. "I thought they were for me!" — New York World.

Fairly Warned.

"I believe in calling a spade a spade," declared the stranger.

"It is mighty dangerous to call one card of any other suit if you sit in a game around here," warned the native. — Buffalo Express.

FRANCHISE GIVEN

From The Bee, Sacramento, Calif.

The Trustees last evening voted to refuse a franchise to the Tehama Telephone company for the construction of a line and branch system in Corning. The vote stood three to two.

The reason given for the opposition to granting the franchise was that Corning now has one telephone system and that the establishment of another one would force the citizens to put in two telephones or else be subject to inconvenience in not being able to reach all of the people.

It is reported that Attorney Andrews of Red Bluff, who represents Tehama County Telephone company, will take legal steps against the Trustees in an effort to compel them to grant a franchise.

First British Regatta.

June 23 was the date of the first British regatta, held between Westminster bridge and Ranelagh in 1775, to which Dr. Johnson appears to have taken Mrs. Thrale. It was suggested by Lady Montague's description of a regatta she had witnessed in Venice. The only rowing contest was "a race of wagers boats," after which a procession of boats manned by red, white and blue oarsmen rowed from Westminster to Ranelagh, where various festivities followed in a temple of Neptune. Some of the 200,000 who attended seem to have supped "not wisely, but too well," for on the return journey "many accidents occurred," and seven persons were drowned.

An Exception.

Little Ethel—Mr. Rich, we're not all made of dust, are we? Mr. Rich (benignly)—Yes, my dear. Little Ethel (triumphantly)—Oh, well, you aren't, cos papa says you sprang from nothing.—London Punch.
